

TOSALET PRIORAT (pronounce the "Ts')

- Priorat is an ancient mountainous region which is located about an hour southwest of Barcelona.
- Priorat is one of the most prestigious appellations in Spain. Many well known winemakers produce wines from this distinctive region, often times some of the most expensive wines in Spain.
- Tosalet remains a great value by aging our wine only in stainless steel. We make an oaked version which is much more expensive.
- The star of the show is low-yielding, old Carignan vineyards. This variety provides great concentration, color and complexity, while the Garnacha brings balance and acidity to the pallet.
- Look for a distinctive minerality due to the dark shale soils from our steep mountain vineyards.
